LOUGHGILLY GRANDPARENTS ASSOCIATION

Following on from our meeting last week a further meeting will take place on Wednesday 25th July at 7.00pm in the Assisi Centre.

The CGA first began in our Parish in 2016 encouraged and supported by the late Deacon Martin Barlow and a small number of Parishioners, unfortunately like so many activities in our world it fell victim to the covid pandemic.

Now is a time for Revival – and so we are calling on all grandparents to get involved, the reasons and activities of the CGA are as follow:

- To Pray for all Grandparents and Grandchildren.
- Grandparents meet over a cuppa and discuss the issues facing family and faith relationships.
- Organise activities for Grandchildren and Grandparents to take part in for both faith and human fulfilment.
- Members receive newsletters about the worldwide activities of the CGA.
- Meetings are held normally every fortnight and there is no commitment to attend every meeting.

So Please consider joining other Grandparents and together let us collectively support the faith of our Grandchildren.

Family is all about 'connection', and you, my dear grandparents of Ireland, are vital links in the chain.

- Archbishop Eamon Martin
