Thought for the Week:

Fifth Sunday of Lent

In John 8:1-11, we encounter

the powerful scene of the woman caught in adultery.

The religious leaders seek to condemn her according to the Law, yet Jesus offers a profound lesson in mercy. His words, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her," challenge us to reflect on our own lives and judgment of others. This Lent, we are invited to examine our hearts, recognizing our brokenness while extending love and compassion to those in need of forgiveness. Jesus doesn't condemn the woman; instead, He offers her a path to transformation, saying, "Go, and from now on sin no more."

As we journey through this Lenten season, let us seek to embody Christ's grace, accepting His forgiveness and sharing it with others.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, help us to recognize our need for Your mercy and inspire us to extend that mercy to those around us. Amen.

CEMETERY RUBBISH

We ask Parishioners not to dump items from their graves in boundary hedges.

We ask that you take rubbish home with you or, for those visiting Tullyherron Cemetery - please use the skip for flowers etc. Black Bins are for Church waste only.

Our local churches hold a special place in our hearts.

Apart from our regular services in them, we all have very personal memories of them – Christenings, Weddings, Funerals, First Communions and Confirmations – we all have our own stories of our local church.

They have stood the test of time and please God, they will continue to stand proud in the landscape of our parish for many, many years to come.

Parishioner and local artist, Frances McLoughlin has captured the beauty of each of our four churches in a series of captivating paintings which are simply stunning. Frances has very kindly agreed to donate prints of her paintings to the parish which we will sell as part of our fundraising efforts. The paintings will be on display in St Malachy's Church from 17th April and will be available to purchase from 28th April.

These prints will hang beautifully in your home as a constant reminder of the special memories you have of your local church. They will also make special gifts for family and friends, particularly those who are no longer in our parish.

We will provide more details of how to purchase in due course but in the meantime, I want to thank Frances for her kind support of our parish fundraising activities.
