PARISH DRAW

Sellers are continuing to visit homes selling our Parish Draw tickets. We ask each family to purchase at least on ticket. Thank you

During November and on First Fridays, Masses will be offered in our Parish for all those whose names are included in our November Dead Lists. The lists are now available on the church porch. Please return your completed lists, along with the customary offering in the provided envelopes, either in the collection baskets or at the parish office. Mass for those who have died in the past year will take place on Monday 3rd November at 7.00pm in St Malachy's Church – We ask a member of each family to contact the Parish confirming that they will carry a candle up to remember their loved one.

CEREMONY OF ENROLMENT

We welcome in a particular way our Primary 4 Children to our Mass this Saturday in St Malachy's, Ballymoyer, as they continue their journey to First Holy Communion. We look forward to seeing them in the Parish Churches each week. I ask you to keep them all in your prayers.

INDULGENCES FOR ALL SOULS DAY

From 12 o'clock noon on 1st November until midnight on 2nd November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the pope's intentions {one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice} can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostle's Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st November to 8th November.

The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st to 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

What are Indulgences? ... Indulgences are the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven. The faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under prescribed conditions for either themselves or the departed. Indulgences are granted through the ministry of the Church which, as the dispenser of the grace of redemption, distributes the treasury of the merits of Christ and the Saints. {Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 312. See CCC, 1471-9, 1498.}

*Lord God,
Whose days are without end
And whose mercies beyond counting,
Keep us mindful that life is short
And the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth
In the ways of holiness and justice,
That we may serve you
In union with the whole Church,
sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey is ended,
Lead us rejoicing into your kingdom,
where you live for ever and ever. Amen.*

As we continue our journey towards the Archdiocesan Congress on Youth, Family and Faith we look forward to hosting a gathering on Wednesday 29th October at 7.00pm in the Belleeks Country House, to listen to the voices of our community of faith.

All of us gathered will reflect on the question: "What can we do together, in our schools, homes, parishes and in the Archdiocese of Armagh, to help young people and families to grow in faith and get to know Jesus in a real and personal way?" It is important to realise that we do not walk this path alone. Under the guidance of Saint Patrick, Saint Brigid, Saint Malachy and Saint Oliver Plunkett we step into this listening phase, with humility and trust, knowing that this is not simply a time for programmes but a sacred moment of listening and shared responsibility. This is not just a meeting, but a moment of grace and encounter to share our ideas on Faith and how we move forward together as a Diocese and Parish.

We especially encourage and invite the following to please come along:

- Families with children and teens
- Young adults
- Grandparents
- School teachers and other people working with young people and families

This is an opportunity for our voice to be heard and our aspirations of how we see our faith in the future being handed on to the present and next generations.

Please do come along, enjoy the night and the refreshments which will be provided.
