Rota is now available from the vestry of the Church or online.

NOVENA TO ST PIO + OTHER DATES
Details of Novena and many other dates (Including Sacraments) over the next year are now available on our Parish Website!

Altar Society - The Altar Society is responsible for decorating the church, preparing for special occasions, and maintaining cleanliness. Members help ensure the church is a beautiful and welcoming space for worship and prayer.
Key Qualities: Diligence, attention to detail, teamwork, and a love for our church community.

Altar Server - As an Altar Server, you assist during Mass by preparing the altar, carrying the processional cross, and helping with liturgical tasks. Your service supports the smooth and reverent celebration of the Eucharist.
Key Qualities: Reverence, attentiveness, responsibility, and a respectful attitude. Servers must have Made their First Holy Communion.

Choir - Members of the Choir sing during Mass and other church services, leading the congregation in worship through music. They work to enhance the prayer experience and express praise to God.
Key Qualities: Musical ability, teamwork, dedication, and a joyful spirit.

A Welcomer greets parishioners and visitors at the church entrance, offering a friendly presence. This role helps create a warm atmosphere and makes everyone feel comfortable and included.
Key Qualities: Friendliness, warmth, approachability, and good communication skills.

Hospitality - Hospitality volunteers provide or support in the serving of refreshments after Liturgies or events.
They foster fellowship and help build a sense of community within the church.
Key Qualities: Warmth, friendliness, attentiveness, and good interpersonal skills.

Fundraiser - Fundraisers organize events and campaigns to raise funds for church projects and outreach programs. They help ensure the parish has the resources to serve its mission and community needs.
Key Qualities: Creativity, organization, enthusiasm, and teamwork.

Lector - Lectors read Scripture passages during Mass, sharing God's Word with the congregation. They prepare and proclaim the readings clearly and confidently to help deepen the community's faith.
Key Qualities: Clear communication, preparation, confidence, and reverence.

Eucharistic Minister - Eucharistic Ministers assist in distributing Holy Communion during Mass. They serve the community by helping to bring Christ's presence to the congregation in a respectful and reverent manner. They may also visit the Sick and bring Communion to those who are unable to attend Mass.
Key Qualities: Respect, humility, attentiveness, and reverence.

Youth Ministry involves organizing activities and programs for young people, helping them grow in faith and community. Leader's mentor and support youth in their spiritual journey.
This will be particularly needed for Children's Liturgy during some Masses and during Mass around Sacramental preparation.
Key Qualities: Leadership, patience, enthusiasm, and a caring attitude.

We warmly invite Parishioners to consider assisting with at least one Ministry within our Parish. When we all get involved, our Parish can become a vibrant, thriving community that is truly alive with faith and service.
As refurbishment work on our churches progresses—Belleeks is set to be completed this year, and the minor works at St. Malachy's are scheduled for next year, God willing—our focus must turn entirely toward bringing more people closer to God. Many parishioners attend Mass weekly and pray daily, but there is always more we can do—not out of obligation, but out of a genuine desire to deepen our relationship with Christ, grow in Scripture knowledge, and strengthen our faith.
We also recognize that many people have drifted away from the Church. It is our mission to reach out to them with love and compassion. By building up our ministries now, we set the foundation for a bright and fruitful future for our wonderful Parish of Loughgilly. So, we kindly ask you to help us today—please consider signing up for a ministry. You can do so by emailing or calling the Parish Office. Together, let's make our Parish a place where faith flourishes and everyone feels welcomed and valued.
